LOYALTY TO ONE'S STATE

LOYALTY IS A VIRTUE | Satya Advaita Vedanta (vishistaadvaitavedanta.com)

<http://vishistaadvaitavedanta.com/entries/general/loyalty-is-a-virtue>

Loyalty to the State that one lives in in the immediate vicinity is synonymic component of Vishista-advaita Vedanta.

First immediate vicinity for a person is his family, then one's locality and finally the State that one lives in and which is supreme for it is the central government of the country and one must do as one is told in order to the need for having a fulfilled life. It is important to clarify how loyalty should therefore approached in what one does in one's life. I have spent 49 years as an immigrant trying to assimilate and naturalise into the Community at all levels because of my religion of living in harmony with Nature. I constructed the Conservative Libertarian Society (Home | The Conservative Libertarian Society (<https://www.theconservativelibertariansociety.com/>) and its political offshoot The Conservative Libertarian Party of the United Kingdom (<https://theconservativelibertarianpartyoftheunitedkingdom.com>). It is year and a quarter months since these thoughts emerged in my mind on how to strive for a better future for not just the United Kingdom, but by extrapolation the entire world. This site Towards Knowledge for World Conservation contains all the materials the study of which would show that because I have been loyal I have survived tremendous upheavals in my adult life.

Loyalty to a State requires serving the most idealistic conception of society that one can personally strive for through dharmayudhic truth-accommodation.

I have generated factual information which have changed this society even within my lifetime and the books that I have written totalling 30 Sections under the theme 'Tjhe Allurement of Reality' are available for all the people of the United Kingdom to consult as an encyclopaedia of the State of the Nation, and in that way it was a mission that I have accomplished to my satisfaction: The Allurement of Reality in 30 Sections (knowledgeforworldconservation.com) (<https://www.knowledgeforworldconservation.com/post/the-allurement-of-reality-in-25-sections>) . It was service to the Nation of the United Kingdom that I had engaged in single-mindedly and within the limitations of the finances at my disposal.

In order to display loyalty to one's State one has to display loyalty towards all members and institutions of the State, that is to be a socialist. That is a good thing but when one lives in a State that treats a human being as a slave to be used and abused with no justice, loyalty is in jeopardy. So the rewards of loyalty has to be assessed. The fact of the matter this evening is that one cannot be loyal to one's employer for it is out to make money out of slave labourers and will not consider the health and financial implications of working conditions operating in the Company. Today four members who were advisors to the Prime Minister Mr Boris Johnson resigned from No 10 Downing Street to further their careers which they judged would be harmed by continuing their association with him. So let us not get too carried away with the idea of loyalty. Each person to himself. It is a rat race and a dog-eat-dog jungle of Brahma-Nature that we live in. While I still live, I have hopes and ambitions, I cannot forgive the State under whose watch £55,000 was stolen from me by the University of Greenwich which did not pay me my redundancy money and put me rightly or wrongly through a disciplinary process. The State did not rule on the dispute fairly such that to this day 24 years after dismissal from service I never had a face-to-face Hearing in a Court of Law that further considered me to have abused the process of Court. The perpetrators further harassed and terrorised me over these years by insisting that I was mentally ill with severe depression with psychotic features, persistent delusional disorder, paranoid schizophrenia and indictions to their questionnaire based assessment of a congenital disorder of autism, so locked me up in Secure Wards of Mental Hospital on two occasions first in 2004 and then in 2008 for my fight for justice. It was State-organised persecution in its most severe form. And it continues. I am a libertarian idealist and through calculated manoeuvres stood my ground and survived the persecution. I am free, but I work back in a Petrol Station once again with my PhD Doctorate and Distinction level Diploma in Agricultural Development.

So the question of loyalty to the State has to be considered carefully and steps taken to withstand further persecution for there is no justice for me in the national and international courts. To hell with the persecutors with the non-response of the Long Catlis Road Surgery to the following representation:

Comment: The cost of loyalty can be severe, there is only one loyalty that is supreme, the loyalty to truth. I have suspended and as good as archived all my websites and will only publish now in Lulu to force the consideration of this update. For all public domain publications if added to could be very dangerous for me. This afternoon I could not get access to my work website to look at my shifts so finally had to text colleagues on WhatsApp to find out what was wrong with it. I had to Update the App in the end upon the suggestion that was sent by someone in reply.

Justice is elusive in the world of humanity that we live in but truth is not elusive; for truth is God.

Upon return from work at BP Leham, I deleted all emails including from Amazon that related to the Safety Shoes that was purchased and delivered while I worked. There was an email from Wix.com effectively inviting me to post something of other in the the Wix sebsites that I also ignored and deleted. Thus, I cleared out all my inbox emails in Yohoo and Gmail Accounts and relaxed from the tiredness of am 8 hour shift of work at BP Lenham, when the following email came from Norton to prod and provoke me:

Comments: Norton has been harassing me for around two years in this manner for we never took out a contract with he Company preferring to go with McAfee, and on this laptop that we purchased when the Police took away our desk top home computer there is no Vitus protection at all. I am not deleting any further emails for that is action that means information is being sent to the persecutors.

I had a longish Meeting with Chiran the Manager of the BP Lenham Store this afternoon to discuss my welfare in light of the communications and all seems well with my relationship with him. I have shifts of work scheduled until 19 February 2022. If I keep on good terms with Chiran he will accommodate me in the Store, of that I feel confident. I need a new purpose to while away my time and get paid for it. I worked very hard today.

Nothing will be updated in the websites or at Lulu until real legal proceedings take place. I will work at the only job where I will show willingness and hard work to keep us afloat. I will just write this book indefinitely.

Tomorrow I am off from the work place and there is no purposeful monitoring of anything. I am not going to Facebook either. Just relaxing at home.

17.22 pm (UK-Time) 4 February 2022.

Update: I then sent a WhatsApp message to Chiran as follows: *Hi Chiran, I am feeling really good now. My safety shoes have come from Amazon. Following the Meeting today I have decided to stick with 3 shifts of 8 hours per day each week My holidays are booked for Portugal 18 May-25 May, and Cyprus 14 Sep-21Sep. Hope it is ok with you. Dear Prosecutor at the International Criminal Court

I have repeatedly informed 38 Degrees that I have far more important proceedings to worry about than to get involved in its petitions, but they keep sending me these annoying emails to harass me knowing fully well that the Government of the United Kingdom is answerable to the International Criminal court for the 24 years of State-organised persecution that it has subjected me to with its internal and external allies. Please note the contents of the email that I sent Norton Security to which there has been no response: ToNortonSecurity(Siphoningofunds4Feb2022.docx

The sooner you can advise me on the progress of the consideration of the International Criminals brought to your jurisdiction under Your Claim Reference OTP-CR-76/22, the sooner this matter can be laid at rest.

Please acknowledge receipt of this email immediately so that I know one way or the other whether the investigation has started or will start and if so what further evidence you need from me.

38 Degrees Logo

"Waiting is not like hurting you physically, but it is torture mentally." [1]

Dear Shantanu,

Farrukh doesn't know what tomorrow will bring. He's lived in the UK for 19 years, but any day now the Home Office could decide to remove Farrukh and his family from the country. He's spent more than £50,000 on visas and legal fees. He's filled out thousands of pages of forms. But it's the waiting, he says, which is like "mental torture". [2]

Farrukh, who's been working for the NHS during the pandemic, recently told his story in a new, BAFTA-nominated documentary exposing the human impact of ever-tightening immigration policies.

[3] The documentary paints a picture of a system that's impossible to understand and makes life barely tolerable for migrants living here legally.

But there's one thing we know: public pressure can be the difference in situations like this. The Home Office is reviewing Farrukh's case right now, so we need to act. 100,000 people have already signed a petition calling on the Home Secretary, Priti Patel, to do the right thing and let him and his family stay. [4] But if we're going to get her to listen, more of us need to be speaking out.

So, Shantanu, will you be there for Farrukh today and sign the petition? It takes just 30 seconds to add your name.

YES - I'll sign and help Farrukh

Farrukh keeps 3 printers in his attic. [4] Printing pages and pages of forms is central to the mind-boggling immigration application process – his family could be uprooted if he wasn't able to print one day.

It's unimaginable for most of us. The fact a broken printer could mean you and your kids – who only speak English, having only ever lived in the UK – could be forced out of the country.

But there are thousands more like Farrukh in our country today. [5] And the best way to shine a light on our inhumane immigration system is to listen to people like Farrukh and support them when they need our help.

We've done it before. Like when more than 80,000 of us helped prevent Wadih's deportation and we sent 16,000 tweets to stop Pauline being forced out of the country. [6] We've come together in our thousands time and time again to support those in our communities. Let's do it again for Farrukh and his family.

So, Shantanu will you be there for Farrukh today by signing the petition? It takes just 30 seconds to add your name.

YES - I'll sign and help Farrukh

Thank you for being involved,

No approach to living is going to be superior to the one that generates peace of mind. As such whilst the author has explored various conceptions of karma, dharma, sanatan dharma and related these to the Supreme God that he named Sri Krishna he has found from experience that even Vishistaadvaita does not yield sustained peace of mind, just instant moksha. Vishista-advaita is accordingly just a stepping stone in his path or journey in life towards the ultimate philosophy that is not a religion whereas Vishista-advaita is a religion by virtue of the fact that it incorporates the eternal God Sri Krishna/Durga as the one who blesses the practitioner in the course of his karma in sanatan dharma. This may be a correct conception so long as one wishes to be perennially on one's toes fighting dharmayudha battles in the material world. Fighting such causes has proven to be futile in my case as things stand on 5 February 2022 at 14.07 hours that I am writing this account of my experiences. There is no justice in the material world for entrenched human directives are materially there to enslave you.

This leads to the Advaita conception which denounces karma, sanatan dharma or even simple dharma and is non-dual in oneness with Reality. Life is needed to be approached in a manner that reduces stress on the body and mind. Engagement in objectives, aims, plans, missions, ego-based desires, anticipations, hopes, wishes, are all stressful and wrong for having a cool, calm and collected demeanour. God exists even as a Personal God if one shows enough bhakti in devotion and He may give or may not give rewards in terms of knowledge, wisdom but there is no certainty of that. He did arouse me into verbal utterances and written ones and seemingly urged me to fight a dharmayudha who know. I am after 24 years going to dwell on that kind of idle thought as it is a continual source of stress to my mind and as the reaction from the International Criminal Court to the email shows there is no justice in the material world from that kind of subservience and devotion or bhakti to God in Vishistaadvaita religion. So I am philosophical about it now and do not have any such surrender to Truth or God whatsoever. I just react even to my own family members if they annoy me, so no dharma without the sanatan dharma guides me now.

I am writing my autobiography that helps me understand Reality not for any other purpose. That is all I do. It is a Conception of Reality: an autobiographical exploration of Reality. Readers should make what they may of it.

1 In advaita, there is no dharma; there is only truth that one accommodates through one's nonchalant, spontaneous and unpremeditated actions and reactions: there is no karma resulting from it. All conceptions of human construction are negated, there is no result to one's actions. There is no love, anger, sadness, joy for these are the body's sensual attributes which have been jettisoned as pointless emotional considerations. There is no Nature, no Loyalty, no separateness from the Absolute. There is only Oneness. It is not even Brahman let alone Brahma-Nature in the guna'-consciousness religion of Vishistadvata and it is not Consciousness either or Self It is. not an illusion for that is something which must have a Creator. So, is there any such thing as Reality in the first place?

Advaita is a philosophy not the Reality. There are no Gods in it or Truth for it as these too are human constructions. But clearly there is something out there non-dual. AND THE QUESTION ARISES WHAT IS THIS ONENESS? THE ANSWER;

IT IS THAT; THOU ART THAT; TAT TVAM ASI

Advaita is strongly atheistic whereas Vishistaadvaita as conceptualised earlier by me is strongly theistic. That is the basic difference between a philosophy and a religion. You pay your money and take your choice. Whatever makes you boat float. Choose what is best for you as a married householder or as a monk/sanyassi.

That is what it is all about.

Comment: The test is on as to which is the supreme approach to life, the theism as conceptualised in the Visistaadvaita by me or the Advaita as conceptualised by me for being theistic in that which is God as It, the Unmanifest that one accommodates to as Truth, the Shunyata or Nothingness. The next email that I receive from any source will spell out which is the realism that I live to, let others make their own choices. If there is no justice in the material world for me than it has to be advaita, if I get my £55,000 severance payment from the University of Greenwich and the refund of the £4,170 paid as the Costs of the Defendant the Prime Minister of the United Kingdom, then I will revert back to Vishistaadvaita as being the eternal law of the universe, but so far Dharma Rakshati Rakshita has not materialised so the final outcome is dubious to say the least. Just live. I have played my final move in this game of chess.

In advaita if one is alive then survive subconsciously; that is not any kind of dharma like swadharma, it is simply 'It' manifesting. On death 'It' is unmanifest again.

Dear Prosecutor at the International Criminal Court

I have repeatedly informed 38 Degrees that I have far more important proceedings to worry about than to get involved in its petitions, but they keep sending me these annoying emails to harass me knowing fully well that the Government of the United Kingdom is answerable to the International Criminal court for the 24 years of State-organised persecution that it has subjected me to with its internal and external allies. Please note the contents of the email that I sent Norton Security to which there has been no response: ToNortonSecurity(Siphoningofunds4Feb2022.docx

The sooner you can advise me on the progress of the consideration of the International Criminals brought to your jurisdiction under Your Claim Reference OTP-CR-76/22, the sooner this matter can be laid at rest.

Please acknowledge receipt of this email immediately so that I know one way or the other whether the investigation has started or will start and if so what further evidence you need from me.

Yours sincerely

"Waiting is not like hurting you physically, but it is torture mentally." [1]

Dear Shantanu,

Farrukh doesn't know what tomorrow will bring. He's lived in the UK for 19 years, but any day now the Home Office could decide to remove Farrukh and his family from the country. He's spent more than £50,000 on visas and legal fees. He's filled out thousands of pages of forms. But it's the waiting, he says, which is like "mental torture". [2]

Farrukh, who's been working for the NHS during the pandemic, recently told his story in a new, BAFTA-nominated documentary exposing the human impact of ever-tightening immigration policies. [3] The documentary paints a picture of a system that's impossible to understand and makes life barely tolerable for migrants living here legally.

But there's one thing we know: public pressure can be the difference in situations like this. The Home Office is reviewing Farrukh's case right now, so we need to act. 100,000 people have already signed a petition calling on the Home Secretary, Priti Patel, to do the right thing and let him and his family stay. [4] But if we're going to get her to listen, more of us need to be speaking out.

So, Shantanu, will you be there for Farrukh today and sign the petition? It takes just 30 seconds to add your name.

YES - I'll sign and help Farrukh

Farrukh keeps 3 printers in his attic. [4] Printing pages and pages of forms is central to the mind-boggling immigration application process – his family could be uprooted if he wasn't able to print one day.

It's unimaginable for most of us. The fact a broken printer could mean you and your kids – who only speak English, having only ever lived in the UK – could be forced out of the country.

But there are thousands more like Farrukh in our country today. [5] And the best way to shine a light on our inhumane immigration system is to listen to people like Farrukh and support them when they need our help.

We've done it before. Like when more than 80,000 of us helped prevent Wadih's deportation and we sent 16,000 tweets to stop Pauline being forced out of the country. [6] We've come together in our thousands time and time again to support those in our communities. Let's do it again for Farrukh and his family.

So, Shantanu will you be there for Farrukh today by signing the petition? It takes just 30 seconds to add your name.

YES - I'll sign and help Farrukh

Thank you for being involved,

Angus, Megan, David and the 38 Degrees team

Dear Shantanu,

Our bees are at risk. Up to three-quarters of crop species are pollinated by bees, but our bee population has been declining for years! [1] That's because since the 1930s the UK has lost 97% of its wildflower meadows. [2] And last month, the UK Government approved the use of a bee-killing pesticide again, putting bees at even higher risk. [3]

Thousands of us have been campaigning to protect our bees. [4] But there's something else we need your help with Shantanu. If thousands of us plant more bee friendly flowers in our gardens, on our windowsills, or in a nearby green space, we can make sure our bees are able to thrive this spring. The plan is to send out bee-friendly flower seeds to people all across the UK. But to do that we're going to need the funds to buy the seeds and post them out. Each packet costs about £3 to buy and send. So the more people chip in, the more seeds we can send out, and the more we can help our buzzy friends the same way they've helped us.

Please can you chip in to help save our bees? You can make a secure donation here - and if you donate, you'll be given the chance to be one of the first to sign up and get your own seeds:

Chip in £1

Chip in £2

Chip in £3

Chip in another amount

38 Degrees only works when all of us come together to do what we can for what we believe in. Not everyone can afford to chip in - especially during the coronavirus crisis. That's why it's so important that those of us who can, do. Then we can make sure that thousands of bee-friendly flowers crop up all over the UK this spring.

This isn't the first time 38 Degrees members have come together to plant flowers for bees - last spring 60,000 of us signed up to get some seeds in the post. So let's do it again this year. Whether you've got a plant pot on a windowsill or a garden in the countryside, these seeds can be planted anywhere across the UK.

Will you chip in to help buy and send out bee-friendly flower seeds, so together we can save our bees? Spring is on the way, so we need to buy, post and plant these seeds as quickly as possible!

7 February 2022 Update:

Advaita philosophy is therefore for those who seek liberation, or moksha or mukti, wishing total continuous peace of mind whereas Vishistadvaita religion is for those who wish to be active in the samasara taking part in Creation and celebrating Creation through truth accommodation and living in harmony in Nature. It means one is always thinking or more accurately if one has been on the truth part allowing the truth to manifest itself in the mind to guide one into the next steps, thereby seeking one's destiny in sanatana dharma. Contrary to my earlier concern that Vishistadvaita does not generate peace of mind, I have now found that it does do so for one has been harmonious with the provisions of God and harmonious with the wherewithals of Nature. Accordingly, I reverted to Vishistaadvaitist in my Biodata Profile on Facebook and Twitter.

To Internet Archive

Dear Sirs

I currently have the following websites the precise and all contents of which I would like Internet Archive to archive for posterity:

<https://www.theconservativelibertariansociety.com/>

<http://vishistaadvaitavedanta.com>

<http://pub46.bravenet.com/forum/3871902446/>

<https://theconservativelibertarianpartyoftheunitedkingdom.com>

<https://the-conservative-libertarian-party-of-usa.odoo.com/forum/help-1/good-evening-folks-i-love-america-1>

<https://the-conservative-libertarian-party-of-usa.odoo.com/>

<https://theallurementofrealityinreview.com>

<https://knowledgeforworldconservation.com>

<https://www.thelibertariandemocrats.com/>

<https://www.newsandviewsfromalibertariandemocrat.com/>

<https://www.knowledgeassessmentanddissemination.com/>

Is it possible for Internet Archive to do this and if so what kind of donation would be appropriate for me to make in connection with this request.

Yours sincerely

February 7, 2022 3:17 AM (UTC-05:00)

I understand, Shantanu

Image 1

Shantanu

February 7, 2022 3:16 AM (UTC-05:00)

I am a one-man band and so would not impose nor trust anyone else to do the renewing except Wix.

If Wix cannot renew the domains and websites on my behalf I will not renew the sites and doimains at the next renewal dates.

Image 1

Jennifer (Wix Support)

February 7, 2022 3:14 AM (UTC-05:00)

The domains and premium plans will stay active until the expiration date, or you can assign an additional role to each website for someone else to keep renewing your sites

Image 1

Shantanu

February 7, 2022 3:13 AM (UTC-05:00)

After my death, and when the payments cease, the websites would disappear from the public domain, even if domain renewal is guaranteed from ICANN when it comes up for reregistration.

Image 1

Jennifer (Wix Support)

February 7, 2022 3:11 AM (UTC-05:00)

That is correct, we just have the option that I mentioned to you

Image 1

Shantanu

February 7, 2022 3:10 AM (UTC-05:00)

It means that there is no way that I can have the contents of these websites in the public domain permanently and so have outlived their usefulness to me.

Image 1

Jennifer (Wix Support)

February 7, 2022 3:09 AM (UTC-05:00)

No, Shantanu, for both (Premium Plans and Domains) we just have the option to renew them separately every 3 years that is the maximum time

Image 1

Shantanu

February 7, 2022 3:07 AM (UTC-05:00)

Sorry, that Wix does not accept a one off charge even if I go for autorenewal of the domains.

Image 1

Jennifer (Wix Support)

February 7, 2022 3:06 AM (UTC-05:00)

No, Shantanu

Image 1

Shantanu

February 7, 2022 3:05 AM (UTC-05:00)

And the charges made to me for the websites also cannot be extended to a permanent status with single one off payment, is that correct?

Image 1

Jennifer (Wix Support)

February 7, 2022 3:04 AM (UTC-05:00)

I understand, in this case, I am checking that your domains are in auto-renewal, so if you extend the registration for 3 years, after the 3 years are going to renew automatically

Image 1

Shantanu

February 7, 2022 3:01 AM (UTC-05:00)

I do not wish to lose the contents of these websites from the Search engine ever, so that the materials are permanently in the public domain.

Image 1

Jennifer (Wix Support)

February 7, 2022 3:01 AM (UTC-05:00)

Sorry, I did not understand your question, if after the 3 years of extension, what happens?

Image 1

Shantanu

February 7, 2022 3:00 AM (UTC-05:00)

What if after the 3 years that the domain lasts as at present the six websites go under a Wix mysite account?

Image 1

Jennifer (Wix Support)

February 7, 2022 2:59 AM (UTC-05:00)

I can add it as suggestion and feedback, we are always looking to improve

Image 1

Jennifer (Wix Support)

February 7, 2022 2:58 AM (UTC-05:00)

No, Shatanu

Image 1

Shantanu

February 7, 2022 2:57 AM (UTC-05:00)

So it is not possible.

Image 1

Jennifer (Wix Support)

February 7, 2022 2:57 AM (UTC-05:00)

After those 3 years, you need to renew them again

Image 1

Jennifer (Wix Support)

February 7, 2022 2:56 AM (UTC-05:00)

We just have the option to extend the registration for the domains for three years

Image 1

Shantanu

February 7, 2022 2:54 AM (UTC-05:00)

OK. you have answered the first question. My second question is can I pay for all time charge to have the six sites in the public domain permanently with the domain names as well?

Image 1

Jennifer (Wix Support)

February 7, 2022 2:52 AM (UTC-05:00)

Just to have the sites on the same account as you have them now

Image 1

Jennifer (Wix Support)

February 7, 2022 2:52 AM (UTC-05:00)

No, Shantanu. It is not possible

Image 1

Shantanu

February 7, 2022 2:49 AM (UTC-05:00)

Is it possible to coalesce these sites under a single Umbrella website?

Image 1

Comment: I educated as I learnt. Loyalty is gratitude. The significance of this reminder from Facebook that I relate to is that 'Ram Teri Ganga Maili Ho Gayi' is a religious Film, that has Lata Mangeshkar and Suresh Wadkar singing for Ravi Kappor and Mandaking with the most meaningful songs that I loved when I first heard them and do so now with Lata Mangeshkar not with us anymore. And Rashmi and I are the same as Sri Krishna and Durga avatars in holy matrimony that is depicted this song in particular.
